

KIEP-3606 Computer English, 2 cr

32 hours

Course's person responsible: John Rogers

Objectives of the course: Objectives: to better prepare students' understanding of technical vocabulary. Areas of study include: History of the computer, computer architecture, how the motherboard ties it altogether, The Devolution of the OS, How an Operating System Controls Hardware, The internet, How a bus works, How internet video and audio work, CAD and computer networks. Aims: reading and understanding technical texts, speed reading, writing, explaining technical information in English. Common European Framework of Reference, Level B2.

Content of the course:

- computer components, basics of data processing, artificial intelligence, CAD, computer networks
- understanding technical text
- speed reading, getting the gist of a text
- explaining technical information in English

Requirements for completing the course: 75 % attendance. Completion parts must belong to the same implementation.

Lectures: 13.1.-5.5.2010, Wednesdays, at 10.00-12.00

Course registration: The application deadline is January 7, 2010

Contacts

Tampere University of Technology, Pori
Continuing Education Centre Edupoint
Tel. +358 2 627 2711, +358 2 627 2772
Fax +358 2 627 2727
Email: avoinpori@tut.fi