

KIEP-3656 Computer English 2, 1 cr

16 hours

Course's person responsible: John Rogers

Objectives of the course: Objectives of the course: Common European Framework of Reference, Level B2. Objectives: To bring students into an experience of using technical vocabulary in their everyday spoken English. Vocabulary and information from Computer English 1 to be used in group exercises. Explaining technical English in a working environment. Students to prepare and deliver a presentation on a chosen technical subject (subject chosen by the student). Students will work and prepare and deliver their presentations in pairs or groups of three. (Presentations can be shot on a video camera with the permission of the student.)

Content of the course:

- Computer networks. How the internet works.
- How software works. How programming languages work.
- Input/output devices, eg how scanners and digital cameras capture images.
- Using information that has been collected during Computer English 1
- Students' specialized subjects.

Requirements for completing the course: 75 % attendance. Completion parts must belong to the same implementation.

Lectures: 18.3.-6.5.2010, Thursdays, at 10.00-12.00

Course registration: The application deadline is March 8, 2010

Contacts

Tampere University of Technology, Pori
Continuing Education Centre Edupoint
Tel. +358 2 627 2711, +358 2 627 2772
Fax +358 2 627 2727
Email: avoinpori@tut.fi